THE ABBOT COMES OUT WINNER IN THE 2:08 RACE FOR TROTTERS.

ATTEMPT, APPARENTLY, TO DEPRIVE HIM OF A CHANCE TO WIN-GOOD CONTESTS IN OTHER RACES EMMA MAS DRIVER INJURED. [BY THEGHAPH TO THE TRIBUNE]

Hartford, Conn., Sept. 8.—The horses were called shortly after moon to-day at the Grand Circuit meeting, and when afantfall put an end to the eport nineteen heats had been trotted and paced course was soggy and slow early in the day but an afternoon of sunshine made it dry and very ast before the last heat was decided. Rilma trotted on abou Klamath's nose was at her wheel, so that Kentucky Union, Rilma and Klamath formed a threepocket around The Abbot, effectually prerenting any attempt on his part to go through and take the lead. It was plain to be seen that the

Just before the horses rounded into the homestretch ha suddenly took The Abbot back until the others ! were all ahead of him and he was clear of the "stone fence." Then, pulling well to the outside of the track. Geers set his horse a-going at a rate of speed which, if maintained for a mile, would bent the record of Alix, 2:03%. Kentucky Union was six lengths in front, trotting very fast, when Ger out of the pocket, and few spectators thought that he would be able to close the gap and win. But such was the speed of The Abbot that he overhauled the flying daughter of Aberdeen be fore she was half-way down the homostretch, and carried her to a break near the long-distance post. From there home the Hamlin trotter came on at ease, winning handliy in 200%. The crowd cheered wildly when the favorite passed the winning post, for everybody could see that he had beaten a

The first race on the regular card to-day developed into a six-heat contest, in which the West ern mare Effle Powers had to meet first one fresh sorse and then another. The mare was made a favorite in the 2:11 class for pacers, although Woodshed and Helena Duplex had many followers in the betting. Effic Powers was driven from fre to wire in every heat, and she led the way o the homestretch six times in succession. The last heat was easily won, Helena Duplex forcing her out in 2:13 for the mile, while Woodshed finished last of the field. In the second heat Helena Duplex was laid up, white Woodshed made his effort in turn. "Dave" McClary, the driver of Star Pointer, held the reins over the sluggish little Boston stallion, and so well did he drive that Woodshed won in a splendid finish, beating the mare a

The time of the mile is a new record for the Woodshed tried again in the third heat, but Efte Powers outfooted him this time, winning by a narrow margin in 2:10%. Barney Demarest now made his first attempt to win with Helena Duplex, who had finished last in the preceding round. Coming up fresh from the rear, she won the next three heats after a series of furious finishes with Telle Powers. The speed rate was well sustained to the end of the race, the sixth heat having been paced in 2:10%. Timorah, a rapid-gaited, plump, little brown mare, owned by R. H. Plaut, of Macon, Ga., won the race for 2:30 trotters without a bit of dim-culty in straight heats. Robert Patchen, a big bay trotter, owned by M. E. Luce, of Napoleon, Ohio, showed rare speed in the first and last heats. but his driver appeared to be content to win second money and avoid a record. The horse had started only once before, and, although it is said he has trotted in 2:12 in private, he is still eligible to the 2:30 class. He will probably be heard from next year. The time of Timorah's winning miles was 2:14%, 2:15% and 2:15, which is uncommonly fast for the 2:30 class. Marcus Daly's three-yearold trotter Cuprum, by Prodigal, was timed separately in 2:15% in the first heat. He is another green one without a record, but he was driven to

The Brooklyn trainer John Cheney wen a good race in the 2:16 class for trotters, driving Dr. John Campbell's hay gelding Celibate to victory in straight heats and in fast time. The California stallion Ellert started a favorite in this contest, but he was unsteady, and failed to win any part of the purse. Surpol, a big gray stallion from Missouri, came up very fast in the homestretch, in the last two heats, but Curry drove him to a break each time when he looked to be on the point of winning. The opposition to Celibate was not very determined, three or four horses in the last heat making way for the winner to pass through at the pole on the lower turn.

The handicap pacing race resulted in an accident to the well-known New-England reinsman John F. Payne, who held the reins to-day over the bay mare Emma M. In rounding the upper turn in the first heat, Hal C., a brown gelding that paces in hoppies, made a break and fell suddenly while in the lead. Emma M., coming up from behind, went right over the fallen horse, throwing Payne high in the air. He struck on his head and shoulders, and was rendered unconscious for haf an hour. Later he was removed to his hotel, downtown. He is severely injured, but it is believed that he will recover.

verely injured, but it is believed that he will recover.

Ex-Senator McCarty's Brooklyn pacer Heien R. won the first two heats of the handicap in clever style, but she made a break in the third round, and Monopole finished first, the race being then postponed on account of darkness.

The race for 2:08 pacers was also unfinished when nightfall came on. Glies Noyes won the first two heats in handsome style in 2:08% and 2:0%, after which the race was all but conceded to be his. But he lost his stride in the third heat, giving way to the favorite, Nicol B. The finish between Quadrigs and Nicol B in this third heat was one of the best of the meeting, the two pacers coming to the wire head and head to the very last stride. The horses will be called at noon to-morrow, in the hope of clearing the card and ending the meeting on time. The summaries follow:

NOTES FROM A VETERAN TURFMAN.

COMMENTS ON VARIOUS RACING AFFAIRS. "Tod" Sloan has desided to sail for England on Tuesday, and will ride at the principal fall meetings. Sloan has had a hard road to travel recently. owing to the distike of saveral of the trainers and a few owners. He rode the winners in the first two races on Kinley Mack and Ben Ronald yegterday with all his old-time skill and vigor. He also wen the sixth race on Thomas Cat, who defeated Jefferson. Mr. Fitzgerald made a capital start in that two-horse race.

In the Belles' Stakes, Sloan had the mount on High Degree, who was the favorite. There were many rumors affoat about High Degree, It was of condition. The stable reports, however, were that she was all right. The result of the race set the tongues of the turf Sorosia wagging, as Black Venus was heavily backed, and won with amazing ease, while High Degree had no speed and ran un-placed.

The readers of The Tribune, however, had read about Black Venus, who was described recently in The Tribune as ranking with the best two-year-olds in training, and a half-tone picture of the black flyer was published at the same time. After the race Sloan was anything but pleased. He said: "That filly coughed all the way to the post and coughed continually while waiting for the start. She was unable to extend herself, and stopped to

She was unable to cough during the race."

Edward Feakes, who trains High Degree, said:

"It's singular that the filly has not coughed since the race, nor has she taken a long breath."

Verity, racing is peculiar.

The Sass benefit takes place at the Brighton track to-lay. Everyloofy who takes an interest in racing should endeavor to be present, as Charles Victor Sass did much for the sport. He was a constant advocate of long-distance races, and, although powerless to act, he was a firm believer in drastic measures to purify the turf.

J. J. McCafferty is now the owner of Ben Ronald.

M. E. Dwyer entered him in the second race to be drasic measures to purify the turi.

J. J. Mediafferty is now the owner of Ben Ronald.

M. F. Dwyer entered him in the second race to be sold for $50. McCafferty, who is angry at the treatment which he received at Saratoga, bid him up to $1,500, and secured him. It is a pity that self-sing races in this country furnish the medicine to gravify animosity. In Englant the seiling races are played for what they are worth, and in nearly every race horses are bid up or claimed. The selling races in England establish the values of horses, and nobody complains or gets angry if horses are bid up to their full value.

Martimas gets 128 pounds in the Great Eastern Handleap. William Hendrie, the owner of Martimus, intends to start him. Black Venus, 113, and Ethelbert, 115, are considered by many turfinen as dangerous factors. Trainers and others who discuss the weights are extremely humorous when they discover that St. Lorenze classes with Kingdon, Ethelbert and others who have wen several races.

The grounds of the Montreal Amateur Athletic Association at Westmount presented a gay scene to-day, a large number being present to witness the opening play in the international cricket match Eastern League of Canada.

The Englishmen, who have come to play a series of games in this city, Toronto, Philadelphia New-York, were out early this morning to get in me practice before the match began. Heavy rain yesterday left the ground soft and

The pitch, however, played true, and as the experts examined the wicket and heard that the Englishmen had won the toss, a big score was The visitors, however, unadently predicted.

The Canadians, whose team represented the clubs of Montreal, Quebec and Ottawa, had fourteen men in the field, and the Englishmen found it difficult to get the ball past them. Several of the men were unmistakably out of form, too, but F. Mitchell and E. H. Bray both played spiendidly, in spite of the odds against them, and some of the other men, notably A. Warner and V. T. Hill. did good work. The total, however, reached only 130, and the Canadians felt consequently elated.

The home team was not long in finding out that Bosanaguet, the visitors' first bowler, was a terror on a steky pitch, and their wickets began to fall with a degree of rapidity altogether unlooked for. With five wickets for nine runs to his credit Captain Warner decided to give his chief bowler a rest, and then H. Ackland and B. A. T. Beil did good work for the Canadians. E. C. Lee, a mediumpare bowler, took two wickets for eight runs; G. E. Winter, bowling lobs, secured three for 27 times, and the Canadians were all out for 82 runs, or 48 runs behind.

The Englishmen then went in for a second inne-

PARET BEATEN BY HACKETT IN THE SEMI-FINALS IN THE SLEEPY HOLLOW CUF TOURNAMENT.

The Sleep Hollow Club's open tennis tournament for the challenge cup held by Fischer was con-tinued yesterday under favorable conditions. Owing to the shower of Wednesday, Paret and Clothter had to play two matches in the singles, which handicapped both in the semi-finals. Paret's match with Hackett was the feature of the day, and the play was of a high order. The men met once be-fore this year in the challenge round for the Maine State championship, when the Yale champion won by three sets to one.
In yesterday's match he started off with a lead of 4 to 2 in the first set, but Paret then played come gilt-edged tennis, and ran four straight games, taking the first set by 6 to 4. Both men games, taking the first set by 6 to 4. Both men were rushing to the net on every service, but Paret passed Hackett, while the latter could not pass him. In the other two sets, however, Paret a play fell off badly, while Hackett's improved in preportion. The Yale man kept forcing the play from the beginning of the second set, and Paret tirred badly at the end, not getting a single game in the last set. To-day, the two Yale men. Hackett and Alles, meet in the final match for the right to challenge Flacher for the cup. The doubles will also be continued. The day's scores follow:

BASE HITS. Even the strongest team finds it hard work at times to win two games in one afternoon. Cleve-land dropped one to Louisville yesterday. The games yesterday give Boston a lead of B point over Cincinnati, Chicago a lead of 9 points over New-York, and ties the Pittsburg and Philadelphia teams for seventh place.

President Ebbets denies the story that the Brooklyn team lost money on the recent Western tour. He says his club cleared nearly $4,000 on the trip.

LOST $550 ON HIS WAY TO THE BANK.

B. L. Behrendt, of No. 72 West One-hundred-andeighteenth-st., boarded a Lenox-ave. car Wednesday afternoon with envelopes containing $50 in cash which he intended to deposit in a bank. When Mr Behrendt arrived at the bank the envelopes were missing, and he is unable to account for their disappearance. There were fifty-five ten-dollar bills in the envelopes, besides two photo-graphs and a letter signed "R. D." Mr. Beb-rendt offers a reward of $250 for the return of the missing envelopes with their contents intact.

MUST FILL THE TRENCH AT ONCE. James P. Keating, the Commissioner of Highways, yesterday sent to President Elias of the Third Avenue Railroad Company a notice to the effect that if the company did not proceed within five days to fill up the long-standing trench in the Kingsbridge Road the city would do the work at the expense of the company. The trench has rethe expense of the company. The trench has rethe expense of the company. The trench has remained open ever since the company dug it nearly two years ago for an underground troiley road, and was stopped from building the road by a decision of the courts that the charter granted by the former Board of Aldermen was invaid. The Commissioner has made repeated efforts to compel the company to fill up the trench, and the courts have decided that the city can do the work and compal the company to pay for it.
